HIGH TELEGRAPH RATES.

How the Matter is Viewed in Liverpool.

PARIS, June 30.—Gambetta arrived yesterday, and has received many visits from both official and unofficial personages.

The sentence of death imposed upon Crémieux by the court martial at Versailles will probably be commuted.

The work of rejuvenating Paris is progressing. Fully 60,000 masons are engaged in repairing the damaged buildings, and erecting new ones. The city is also being thoroughly disinfected.

The journals of Paris and Versailles express satisfaction at the success of the review at Long Champs.

The circular of Raulher to the electors affirms that he is a defender of the principles of free trade. In relation to the future form of government, the nation must decide upon it after the elections have been held and the question of free trade been decided upon. He denounced the opponents of the policy as mere factions.

The speech of Gambetta at Bordeaux was the subject of the development of education in France, and was received with hearty approval and great applause.

The Official Journal, commenting on the review at Long Champs, remarks: "We have shown Europe an army of one hundred thousand strong, valorous and ably commanded, which has saved the cause of civilization. We have also called for two millions of money, and have been offered five millions. The nation evidently reveres him."

BOMBAY, June 29.—A dispatch from Shanghai confirms the announcement of the capture of Tsin Tsa forts by the Americans, with slight loss. The Koreans had 240 killed and a great many wounded. The French loan has been introduced into Bombay with immense success.

LONDON, June 30.—At a meeting of the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce to-day, preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted to the following effect:

"Whereas, the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce has learned with surprise that the high cable rates are sustained when all the Atlantic cables are working; therefore,

"Resolved, That the officers of this body be authorized and directed to make representations to the matter to the Government, and to ask the aid of the Chambers of Commerce of Manchester, Birmingham, Leeds, Sheffield, Glasgow and Edinburgh."

The correspondents of the London papers all agree that the review at Long Champs and the French loan were both successful. One writer says the thought of revenge upon Germany is uppermost in the minds of the Parisians, who still hope for an opportunity to readjust the frontier.

County School Commissioners.

The undersigned would respectfully and earnestly urge upon the attention of the people in those civil districts in which school elections have recently been held for good and capable men chosen to these offices as soon as possible. The law requires that a majority of all the districts in the county shall be represented at a meeting of the Board of Education, in order to make a quorum. A bare majority was present on yesterday's meeting, and the organization of the Board, and the election of its members, so there will be hereafter a danger of a quorum, unless more of the districts choose commissioners who will, as they can, attend. And yet the action of the Board of Education is necessary to the proper and efficient working of the present common school system. In view of these facts, we trust that you will not fail to elect shortly commissioners for your respective districts who will serve.

But there are other considerations which furnish a reason for your doing so. Even upon the supposition that your want of commissioners will never prevent the Board of Education from acting through lack of a quorum, nor delay the work of common school education in those districts where commissioners have been elected, still the result will be that your districts will remain for the time without free schools. While the children of your neighbors are enjoying the benefits of the State and county taxes, levied for the work of popular education, the children of your districts will be left, temporarily, at least, without similar advantages. The county is one, and all its parts should equally share in the privileges which inure to them under the school law. Every district should in due time receive its share of the proceeds of the school taxes, along with the other districts, and organize its schools. But this no district can do without commissioners. But by united and judicious efforts, the movement which has now been hopefully begun for the education of the people of the county will go forward with commendable success. To that end we ask your cooperation.

By order of the Board of Education.

JUDGE EMMONS' WORK.

Cases Submitted to Him not to be Decided for Several Months.

The following from the Detroit Post of a recent date, is of interest to many Tennesseans:

Judge Emmons returned home some weeks since seriously ill of a bronchial difficulty, in sympathy with which his lungs seemed to be somewhat affected, but in the belief that he could devote a part of each day to the determination of the numerous cases submitted upon his circuit, and still reap the benefit of the medical treatment he was undergoing. A renewed attack, however, is the result of overwork, and his physicians demand total abstinence from the cases which, beyond doubt, produced the disease. In over-anxiety to dispose of the matters before him he neglected their advice, and the result is so serious that nothing but prompt measures will prevent permanently injurious consequences. He leaves in a day or two, with his family, for Colorado, the climate of which has signally benefited many citizens similarly afflicted. When Judge Emmons returns to his labors he must either attempt less, or some provision be made for clerical assistance. The usage in many districts in his circuit, of arguing cases orally, without written briefs, and the trial of the causes with no report of the testimony beyond the minutes of the Judge, has caused him an amount of labor that no man, however strong, can continuously perform. We believe no office in the nation, with duties so extensive and important, is without the aid of clerks, for the performance of mere manual labor.

Should Judge Emmons not be able within a few months to resume work he will cause counsel interested in the cases to be notified and have measures taken for their determination by other Judges.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—

A memorial was received to-day dated Dublin, Fayette county, Alabama, addressed to President Grant, and representing the intentions of 13 persons, saying that the condition of affairs is such in Fayette county as to render the lives of loyal citizens wholly insecure. Armed bands, styling themselves kluks, are committing crimes and outrages upon peaceable and law-abiding persons. Murders by these ruffians, who have long disgraced the country, are of common occurrence. To any and all authorities have been overawed, and are utterly powerless to execute the laws. The petitioners assert that unless the crimes which have been committed by these ruffians can be terminated, and the organization itself entirely broken up, civil liberty and personal safety will be at an end in Fayette county, and life and property and everything else will soon be at the mercy of an organized mob. For such reasons, they most humbly and imploringly appeal for the protection which the Constitution and laws guarantee to every citizen of the United States.

NEW YORK, June 28.—The Methodist Book Concern adjourned sine die, yesterday. The committee unanimously declined to accept Dr. Carleton's resignation and adopted resolutions expressive of their confidence in the ability, integrity and faithfulness of Dr. Carleton in his position as a Christian gentleman, whose character is above reproach.

Bishop Ames publishes his decision, which disapproves of Lanahan's application to the court for a mandamus that he be allowed to examine the books of Carleton, but thinks the penalty too severe for the offense. The Bishop goes at length into his reasons for concurring with the decision of the committee removing Lanahan. The action of the Bishop is final until the meeting of the General Conference, the election of delegates to which has already commenced. The case of Lanahan, it is expected, will form the chief issues before the conference.

A gentleman asked a lady, "How did you get along, when abroad, to make yourself understood?" "Oh, my dear sir," replied she, with quite a French air, "we had an interpreter with us." The same lady, having arranged some staves in an adjoining room, requested the same gentleman to step into the next apartment and see her quilts. He went.

California Women.

[G. A. Townsend in Chicago Tribune.]

The first generation of California women are not handsome. Adolphus, a frequent flavor of old grass is detected in the widows, and the steamship passage is not a good seminary in all respects for either matron or maid. Of one of the former belles of San Francisco it is related, as a pleasing joke, that she was married out of a wealthy family to a gentleman who doted upon her eccentricities, the least pleasant of which to him was a request that the ceremony should be postponed, and that she should instantly and separately depart for the East and for Europe.

What for?

Adolphus, I am surprised at you! Consistency, of course!

Well, arrived at Salt Lake, the virgin wife received the following telegram from her husband:

"The cattle out!"

She replied thus femininely:

"Who peached?"

He retorted:

"The coachman!"

She then plaintively telegraphed:

"Bust his crust!"

All of which can be found in "Robert Greathouse" and other novels of California social life.

The Boston Commercial Bulletin is responsible for the following:

"My fall in the Back Yard," by the author of "My Summer in a Garden," is announced.

Police Judicial Wisdom—Let us speak of man as we find him.

The best word for making Cradles—Rock Maple.

Sailors are not necessarily making plum duff when they are stemming the current.

A good gauge by which to measure a man's character is his language.

It will probably give rise to a difference of opinion, if we ask if an individual who has married a shrew can be considered a shrewd man.

John Morrissey contradicts the reports that the rounds of the newspapers that his "den" at Saratoga is open to ladies to gamble in. He says: "I have lived in Saratoga nine years, and no lady has ever gambled nor will ever gamble in my house. By request, ladies have been permitted to look at the house and furniture, but the comment it has occasioned far and near prompts me to decline any further visits from them. Furthermore, my house is intended for visitors, not residents of Saratoga."

The Tichborne baronetcy case in England incites a rhymester in the Spectator to perpetrate a parody on "The Song of a Shirt," of which the first verse—There are eight in all—is as follows:

With fingers weary and worn,
With eyes' neath his spectacles red,
A Judge sat at home on the Derby Day
Getting his notes in his head.

Tich, Tich, Tich.

While others were having their sport,
And still with a voice of dolorous pitch
He sang the Song of the Court.

The Indiana Case.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 28.—The Houston (Texas) Union says the Indian raid on Warner's wagon train near Fort Richardson, some time since, in which seven men were killed and forty mules captured, was designed for the capture of General Sherman, of whose coming the Indians had knowledge. When the attack was made one of the chiefs was heard to give an order to "take Captain Sherman alive."

Dr. SIMMONS' Liver Regulator.

The symptoms of liver complaint are uneasiness and pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is in the shoulder and is mistaken for rheumatism. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite, and sickness, bowels in general costive, some alternating with lax.

The head is troubled with pain, and dull, heavy sensation, considerable loss of memory, constipation, with painful sensation of heaviness, which ought to have been done. Often complaining of weakness, debility, and low spirits. Sometimes many of the above symptoms attend the disease, and at other times very few of them; but the liver is generally the organ most involved. Cure the liver and you cure the system.

PAIN KILLER

Has been tested in every variety of climate, and by almost every nation known to Americans. It is the most certain and inestimable friend of the missionary and the traveler on sea and land, and no one should travel on our RAILROADS or RIVERS without IT.

PAIN KILLER was the first and is the only Permanent Pain Reliever.

Since the PAIN KILLER was first introduced, and met with such unparalysed sale, many Limb-painers, Rheumatisms and other remedies have been offered to the public, but none of them have ever attained the truly enviable standing of the PAIN KILLER.

WHY IS THIS SO?

It is because DANIS' PAIN KILLER is what it claims to be—a Reliever of Pain.

Its Merits are Unsurpassed.

If you are suffering from Internal Pain, twenty or thirty drops in a little water will instantly cure you. There is nothing to equal it. In a few moments it cures

Colic, Cramp, Spasms, Heart-Burn, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Flu, Wind in the Bowels, Stomach, Dyspepsia, Headache.

In sections of the country where prevail, there is no remedy held in greater esteem. Every housekeeper should keep it at hand, to pay in the first attack of any Pain. It will give satisfaction, relief, and save hours of suffering.

FEVER AND AGUE

Do not trifle with yourselves by testing untried remedies. Be sure you call for and get the genuine PAIN KILLER, as many worthless nostrums are attempted to pass off on the great reputation of this valuable medicine.

MOORE VERNON, L.L., April 20, 1871.

Messrs. J. N. HARRIS & Co., Cincinnati, Ohio:

Gentlemen—I heard one of my customers speak in praise of your Lung Balm to-day, and I thought I would write you the substance of his statement. He says his mother, who is now sixty years of age, has been under the care of all our best physicians, but never received any permanent benefit; then she resorted to your Lung Balm to-day, and found relief, and she could be procured for her, but all to no avail. She still grew worse, until she was confined to her bed; and when she was seized with a severe cough, and she would lose the power of respiration, and they were compelled to resort to various means to restore breathing; and while she coughed so hard she could not get any sleep, and the family and friends had given up all hopes of her recovery. Her son noticed the advertisement of Allen's Lung Balm in the Christian Advocate, and he thought he would try it, and he purchased a bottle of your Lung Balm, and he used it, and he was cured, and he is now well, and he is able to do his usual work, and he is able to enjoy life, and he is able to thank you for the relief, and within two hours she had expectorated three cups of mucus matter, which gave her immediate relief, and since that time she has continued to improve. She now sits up all day, and can walk about the house and make considerable out-door excursions. Her son bought more of the Balm to-day, and he is recommending it very highly to every one.

Years ago, I was ever greater proof of merit than the case of this letter refers to.

Allen's Lung Balm is without doubt the best expectorant remedy ever offered to the afflicted public. It contains no opium in any form, and its use is harmless to the most delicate.

Directions accompany each bottle.
